Presentation and Meeting

The Magic Lantern
Its History and a
Presentation of
Glass Slide Images

7.30pm 26th November 2014
in the Boyd Room at Carnegie Library

The optical Lantern, more commonly known as a Magic Lantern, preceded the cinema as a popular form of entertainment and instruction. John Semmens has collected lanterns and glass slide images for over 50 years. He will present a brief history of the magic lantern and then an exhibition of various slides showing some of the effects that can be achieved, concluding with a story set of slides.
