NEWSLETTER SUPPLEMENT.

Circumstances have prevented the production of our well-known 'NEWSLETTER' for some time.

'NEWSLETTER SUPPLEMENT' is issued as a fill-in. It is not intended to replace 'NEWSLETTER' but because of ease of production, will be issued frequently to keep members informed of impending fixtures, items of interest and reports of events held. We hope you like the idea.

It is hoped that the next 'NEWSLETTER' will be issued shortly.

CAULFIELD TOUR.

Caulfield Historical Society was asked to prepare a tour of Caulfield for members of the Royal Historical Society of Victoria. The tour was held on August 28th and some 30 persons travelled by bus over a route planned by Society committee. The tour proved both interesting and successful. It is intended to arrange the tour for our own members. Perhaps you could advise any Committee member if you are interested in participating. No date has been suggested as yet.

PUBLICATIONS.

'The CAULFIELD CUP' by Maurice Cavanough.

'Caulfield Contact' by Caulfield City Council. (2 issues)
( general information for Caulfield Citizens to be issued every six weeks).

A History of Caulfield, commissioned by the City Council, is now in the course of preparation. The authors are Peter Murray & John Wells. Publication is expected in about two years time.

C.J. DENNIS EXHIBITION.

An Exhibition to mark the 100th anniversary of the birth of the poet and Journalist, C.J. Dennis, opened at the Latrobe Library, Latrobe St. City, on the 7th September. The Exhibition entitled -'CENTENNIAL BLOKE'- will close on the 31st October.

COMMENT.

HEATHLANDS HOSTEL. --- Caulfield Council recently opened an hostel for the aged at 15 Hawthorn Rd. which they have called 'HEATHLANDS' after what was considered to be an early name for the area. This Society believes that this name was taken from an early map showing "Heathlands" as a general description of the locality. There appears to be no other basis for assuming that this was a district name.

NOVEMBER MEETING.

The November meeting will deal with the history of Ballet in Victoria. Further details a little later. We will be pleased to see you all on this occasion.

RECENT HAPPENINGS.

During the year, the Society visited the LaTrobe Exhibition at the Library, and the Studio of the State Artist, Mr. Harold Freedman. Both were very interesting, particularly the latter, where we saw parts of the huge mural in preparation for the Spencer Street Railway Station. We hope to see more of Mr. Freedman next year.
