ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

We are grateful to Mrs Esler, of Langdon Rd. for the gift of an old book issued on the founding of the Commonwealth in 1901. Entitled 'Addresses to H.R.H. the Duke of Cornwall & York and the Governor-General' it was published by the Municipalities Association of Victoria and shows details and office bearers of all towns and shires in Victoria.

We have also been given a small photo of Caulfield Grammar School taken in about the thirties. These have been added to our collection.

We are always pleased to receive any items of historical significance to add to our increasing collection.

DID YOU KNOW ?

Caulfield has a very rare tramway intersection. The corner of Balaclava and Hawthorn Rds ( Balaclava Junction) is the only tramway 'Grand Union Junction' in the Southern Hemisphere. This means that trams may use the intersection crosswise and round each corner. Incidentally, the first electric tram ran in Caulfield in 1913.

CRAIGELLACHIE.

'The Age' of Sept. 25th features the sale of the historic property known as 'Craigellachie' near the corner of Inkerman & Orrong Rds. This building dates from about 1864 and was the main feature of our first Newsletter (No.1) back in 1972.
