PUBLICATIONS.

'Settlers under Sail'

issued in connection with the Loch Ard Centenary.

'Return to Rosstown'

We mentioned this last Supplement, but as it has such local significance, we refer to the review in the February Caulfield Contact and to its current availability from the Town Hall and several shops in the District.

'SETTLERS UNDER SAIL.'

The Society was well represented at the Loch Ard Oration, delivered by Prof. J.J. Auchmuty, in the Great Hall of the National Gallery, on Wednesday, March 15th. There was a very large attendance at this function, part of the Loch Ard Centenary Celebrations.

TRAMWAY SOCIETY MUSEUM VISIT.

Those who attended the Tramway Museum at Bylands on Sunday, 16th April had a most enjoyable day, despite a cold penetrating wind. The Tramway Society of Victoria has a most challenging and formidable task in trying to preserve and restore examples of Victoria's trams. We enjoyed the rare treat of a ride in a horse tram. Horse trams were the first trams to run in Caulfield way back in 1884.
