PAPERS RECEIVED.

MAY MEETING.

'Schools in Caulfield' was the theme of the May meeting. Several members contributed to the evening. Gwen Rowe gave a full and interesting account of her association as a teacher with 'STRATHFIELD' formerly situated in Inkerman Rd. and Betty Snowball added her contribution on SHELFORD. It is interesting to note that although Strathfield has ceased to function as a primary school at its original location, it still survives as a 'pre-school' at St. Pauls C. of E. in Dandenong Rd.

CAULFIELD CONTACT.

The Society appealed through the Council newspaper, Caulfield Contact, for any information of private schools in Caulfield. There has already been quite a response and although full details are not reported, we are encouraged to seek more particulars about -

Miss Cathcart's School ( Elsternwick Ladies College ? )
33 Parkside St. Elsternwick which closed about 1931.

Miss Birrell's School, Elsternwick.

St. Quentin's School, Stanley St. Elsternwick, run by Miss Farrell and her sisters, about 1908.

St. Peters C. of E. School, Neerim Rd. Murrumbeena. Miss Hogarth Principal in 1916-18. Feeder school for Melbourne Grammar.

HISTORIC BUILDINGS in CAULFIELD.

The Caulfield Council has under consideration the establishment of a register of historic buildings in Caulfield. Such a register would include those listed by the National Trust, the National Estate, and those nominated presumably by citizens or organisations within the City.

CAULFIELD TOWN HALL.

With the exterior painting completed, the Town Hall has regained its full atmosphere of dignity and emphasizes its suitability as the centre of local government in our City. However, the clock is out of action. Was the shock of the new look too much?

SEE YOU ON THE 19th AUGUST !!
